Maarja

thursday

Song: 21
Country: Estonia

Label: unsigned
Website: www.myspace.com/maarjaofficial

By the age of 7 Maarja won the national Estonian singing contest for children "Laulukarusell 1993" (in English "Singing Carousel") organized by Estonian National Television. Winning the contest again in 1994 and 1998 has made her the only person to win the contest three times. Soon Maarja was known as the face and voice of an internationally known pop girl-group Vanilla Ninja. In 2004, Vanilla Ninja's album "Traces of Sadness" reached gold and platinum status in Germany, Austria and Switzerland (selling more than 200,000 units). The album was released in many other countries around the world including Japan, South Africa, Estonia, Finland, Poland, Hungary, Russia and Czech Republic. Despite the fame and high ranks in various international music charts, TV shows and awards, Maarja decided to leave the band at its peak to make real rock music. In the summer of 2007 she made her dreams come true... she recorded her solo album & was deeply involved in the writing process for all of the tracks as well. It was recorded at the Document Room in Malibu with world famous producer Kevin "Caveman" Shirley (Iron Maiden, Dream Theater, Led Zeppelin, HIM) with the help of some amazing musicians: Paul Crook (MEAT LOAF, ex-ANTHRAX, SEBASTIAN BACH) on guitar, Scott Metaxas (ex-NUCLEAR ASSAULT) on bass, Derek Sherinian (YNGWIE MALMSTEEN, ex-DREAM THEATER) on keyboards and Brian Tichy (ex-OZZY OSBOURNE, SLASH'S SNAKEPIT, GILBY CLARKE, PRIDE & GLORY) on drums. Maarja is truly an amazing singer/songwriter; she wants to rock the world and is ready to prove it with her new songs, powerful performances and incredible recordings!
